

AMERICAN AGRI-WOMEN
TRENNA GRABOWSKI LEGACY KIDS
FLY-IN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
(FOR AGES 8-18)

The Trenna Grabowski Legacy Kids Fly-In Scholarship is an award for two kids 8-18 years of age, which will pay $200 towards expenses for the AAW Washington D.C. Fly-In. Eligibility requirement is to be a Legacy Kid member of AAW. Legacy Kids memberships are available for AAW members to purchase as gifts to children/young people from birth through age eighteen. It was Trenna's idea through the AAW Foundation to launch a program to provide a vehicle for AAW members to share their enthusiasm and support agriculture and AAW with young people, while encouraging the ultimate entry of second and third generation individuals into AAW. Submit completed application by May 1st of the current year to aawfoundationscholarships@americanagriwomen or by mail to Pam Townsend, PO Box 71, Blaine, ME 04734.

AAW Legacy Kid Information:

Name: _____
(First) (Middle) (Last)

Address: _____
(Street or Box) (City) (State) (Zip Code)

Parent/Guardian's Name: _____
(First) (Middle) (Last)

Phone: (_____) _____

Email: _____

Please attach a separate sheet of paper with responses to these statements:

1. What you hope to learn from the Fly-In to Washington D.C.?
2. What you would like to see in Washington D.C.?
3. What is your current background relating to agriculture?