

WOMEN HEROES of Science & Technology

On our potato farm, I help improve how we grow food to feed a growing world population. I also find ways to use our land to its fullest potential.

What I love about my job:
I love working alongside my family, planting in the same soil that has produced Maine potatoes for generations.

Erica Fitzpatrick Peabody

Potato Grower & Partner at

A message to young
SCIENTISTS

“If your passion
is science and technology, follow
your heart and you may never feel like you work a day in your life.”
